An intercom system and secure door allow access to the communal hallway, with post boxes immediately inside. Stairs rise to all floors with the second floor hosting the flat.

A spacious modern apartment moments from Portland Marina with far reaching coastal views.

Inside, the hallway offers a useful space for coats and shoes with access to all rooms.

To the right, the large open plan living space forms a key feature of the home. Excellent proportions and two large windows with striking outlook combine to promote contemporary living. Ample room for sofa and dining space sit within a carpeted square with kitchen wrapping round behind. The kitchen is finished in sleek grey units with wood counter tops offering preparation space in abundance. The space enjoys an integrated washer/dryer to one side and oven/hob to the other as well as fridge/freezer to the end. The space enjoys high ceilings and coastal views which add to the charm of the space as well as promoting natural light.

Adjacent, the bedroom is uniquely laid out with vast floor space. The initial space is excellent for a double bed and storage whilst an additional section provides a utilisable study or storage space. Similar views over Portland Marina can be found via either of the two bedroom windows.

The family bathroom, to the end of the hall, retains bath with overhead shower, toilet and basin and is finished in a contemporary style. A large storage cupboard in the hall completes the accommodation.

Converted from an older building, the block enjoys two communal greens. The first communal space is within the block, completely surrounded by the building itself and allows a more intimate, quieter setting. The other green is to the front of the block, a really pleasant open space moments from Castletown Beach and Portland Castle.
