DESCRIPTION

ONE HOME. TWO POSSIBILITIES. AND AN OUTBUILDING THAT MAY STEAL THE SHOW.

Set within sought-after Edenfield Gardens, this beautifully presented family home has something rather special up its sleeve. Alongside the main three-double-bedroom house sits a self-contained one-bedroom annexe, creating a wonderfully flexible home for modern family life.

The main house offers two separate reception rooms, providing space to entertain, relax — or simply escape from whoever has control of the television. The generous kitchen/breakfast room offers excellent storage and preparation space with doors opening directly onto the garden, while a utility room and ground-floor WC add everyday practicality. Upstairs, all three bedrooms are doubles, with the principal enjoying an en-suite shower room, complemented by a modern family bathroom.

Then there's the annexe. With its own bedroom, bathroom and kitchenette/living space, plus access outside, it could be ideal for extended family, older children, guests, working from home or potentially generating additional income. A connecting doorway to the main house could also be reinstated if preferred. Granny, teenager, tenant or workspace — we'll leave that debate to you.

Outside, however, things get even more interesting. The west-facing rear garden is private, beautifully arranged and home to an incredible fully insulated outbuilding created for year-round entertaining. Complete with bi-fold doors, its own bar, indoor smoker and BBQ set-up, this is less 'garden room' and more your own private entertaining venue. Summer parties, winter gatherings, Sunday sport or Friday-night drinks — cancelling plans and staying home suddenly sounds considerably more appealing.

A substantial block-paved frontage provides off-street parking for several vehicles, while the location places Worcester Park Station, High Street and Shadbolt Park within easy reach. Families are also well served by excellent local schools.
