Middleton-By-Youlgrave

Offers Over

£180,000

A unique opportunity to complete and personalise a former barn in a courtyard setting and enjoys a peaceful position surrounded by breathtaking open countryside. Offering the rare chance to shape a home that reflects your individual style and needs.

The property is part of a wider site that has six additional buildings (available separately), each with planning consent already in place for residential conversion, presenting exceptional potential for further development or a bespoke residential project.

The property offers three bedrooms, with accommodation thoughtfully arranged across both ground and first floors. An open-plan living area creates a spacious and versatile environment, while the layout offers flexibility to suit a variety of modern living arrangements, whether as a primary residence, guest accommodation or multi-generational home.

Located in the charming village of Middleton by Youlgreave, in the heart of the Peak District National Park, the property offers immediate access to stunning walking routes through Bradford Dale and Lathkill Dale. The nearby village of Youlgreave provides essential amenities, including a post office, grocery shops, cafés and welcoming country inns, making this a perfect balance of rural tranquillity and convenient village life.
