Property Overview

The ground floor is arranged around a welcoming lounge, providing an ideal setting for everyday living and entertaining. The property also benefits from a separate kitchen, along with a particularly attractive conservatory, creating additional flexible space that could be enjoyed as a dining area, family room or relaxing garden room. A convenient ground-floor W.C. completes the downstairs accommodation.

Upstairs, the property offers three bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom, alongside a family bathroom and landing area.

With its well-proportioned rooms and versatile layout, this home presents an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a property while enjoying the benefits of a desirable village setting.

About the Area

Borden is a sought-after village offering an appealing balance of semi-rural living, everyday convenience and excellent access to surrounding towns and transport links. The area is particularly well suited to families and commuters seeking a quieter setting without feeling isolated.

The village enjoys a strong sense of community, with a range of local amenities, nearby schools and everyday services within easy reach. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the surrounding Kent countryside provides plenty of opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying open green spaces.

Nearby Sittingbourne offers a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure facilities, while its mainline railway station provides convenient connections towards London and the Kent coast, making the location attractive for commuters.

The property is also well positioned for road travel, with access to key routes linking the area to Maidstone, Canterbury and the wider motorway network.

Combining the charm of village life with practical access to amenities, transport and surrounding towns, Borden is an excellent location for families, professionals and those looking to enjoy a more relaxed lifestyle in a well-connected part of Kent.
