OWNERS COMMENTS

In the owners words "We lived in Torpenhow for many years with our children and what impressed us was the lovely village community and the quietness. There are great walks nearby with easy access to the Lake District as well as the coast. We enjoyed the views over the Solway and Criffel, especially the amazing sunsets which you can see from the kitchen window. A 30 minute commute to Carlisle makes it a great hideaway!"

AN ABUNDANCE OF CHARACTER AND CHARM

This home is an absolute delight, brimming with character, warmth, and undeniable charm. It combines beautifully preserved features—exposed beams, quirky room shapes, and a wonderful sense of individuality—with thoughtful modern updates carried out in recent years.

The spacious layout offers three generous double bedrooms, including a stunning vaulted bedroom and a well-appointed en-suite to bedroom 2, while the cosy lounge, complete with a cosy multi-fuel stove, is perfect for relaxing evenings. At the heart of the home lies a superb dining kitchen, designed for both everyday living and entertaining, seamlessly connecting to a practical utility space. A separate study adds flexibility, and excellent storage ensures everything has its place.

All in all, a home that feels both effortlessly liveable and wonderfully unique.

IT'S PERFECT OUTSIDE TOO

The setting is nothing short of perfect, with captivating views that stretch across a charming cottage-style garden and out towards rolling countryside, framed beautifully by established trees and shrubs. A delicate dog rose adds a touch of romance to the garden and is absolutely delightful when in bloom, while beyond, the distant Scottish fells provide a breathtaking backdrop—particularly at sunset, when the skies put on a truly spectacular show.

Within a welcoming village community, complete with its own church and friendly atmosphere, the location offers the perfect balance of peace and connectivity. Cockermouth, the Lake District, the coast, and Carlisle are all within easy reach, making this an ideal base for exploring some of the region's most stunning landscapes. Altogether, it's a setting—and a home—that simply feels special from every angle.

LOCAL COMMUNITY - CA7 ASPATRIA

Torpenhow is a peaceful, elevated village on the edge of the Lake District, offering attractive rural living with far-reaching fell views and a strong sense of community, while remaining highly convenient for everyday life. It sits just 5 miles (around 10 minutes) from Cockermouth, which provides a full range of shops, schools, healthcare and leisure facilities, and around 25 minutes from Keswick for access to the central Lakes. The Solway coast is also within 15–20 minutes, providing an appealing mix of countryside and coastal lifestyle. The area benefits from well-regarded local primary schools and the highly sought-after Cockermouth School, along with reasonable bus links via nearby villages and rail access from Aspatria. Overall, it offers an ideal balance of tranquillity, scenery and accessibility, making it particularly popular with families and lifestyle buyers.
