Bristol: An Economic Powerhouse

Bristol, a vibrant and thriving city, with significant cultural appeal. The city is considered the capital of South West England, is situated approximately 120 miles west of London and 45 miles east of Cardiff, has a population of around 465,000 and more than 1 million people living within a 45-minute drive. This property, located in the Fishponds area is highly popular among students and young professionals alike. Fishponds offers easy access to both the bustling city centre and the growing student community, making it an ideal investment opportunity.

Bristol boasts a diverse and resilient economy, underpinned by a range of key industries. The city has a long-standing connection with aerospace and engineering, with major employers like Airbus and Rolls-Royce based in nearby Filton. Other important sectors include financial services, media, and a rapidly expanding tech industry. Furthermore, Bristol is home to two major universities: the University of Bristol and the University of the West of England (UWE). Combined, these institutions host over 57,000 students, significantly contributing to the city's vibrant atmosphere and economic growth.

In addition, the University of Bristol is expanding with a new £300 million campus in Temple Quarter, which is set to accommodate 3,000 more students by 2025. This development is expected to drive further demand for student accommodation in areas like Fishponds, increasing the area's attractiveness for property investors.

Fishponds, located just 3 miles northeast of Bristol's city centre, offers a unique blend of urban convenience and suburban charm. Known for its strong community atmosphere, the area is highly sought after by both students and young professionals. Fishponds features a lively high street along Fishponds Road, lined with independent shops, cafes, and supermarkets like Lidl and Aldi, making it a convenient place to live. Green spaces, including Snuff Mills Park and Oldbury Court Estate, offer residents the opportunity to enjoy outdoor activities and relaxation. The area is also well-connected, with regular bus routes such as the 48, 49, and 5 linking Fishponds to the city centre and UWE's Frenchay campus. In addition, Staple Hill train station offers direct rail access to Bristol Temple Meads in under 15 minutes, further boosting Fishponds' appeal as a rental hotspot.

ENERGY PERFORMANCE

Score	Energy rating	Current	Potential
92+	A
81-91	B
69-80	C	69 C	77 C
55-68	D
39-54	E
21-38	F
1-20	G

The Energy efficiency rating is a measure of the overall efficacy of a home. The higher the rating the more energy efficiency the home is and the lower the fuel bills will be. Overndale Road benefits from low energy lighting, improved loft insulation, full double glazing, main heating with heating controls and has further scope for increased efficiencies such as additional insulation and PV & solar water heating.
