A beautifully presented and extended four-bedroom, two-bathroom family home with a generous garden and exceptional views across Brighton and the Sussex Downs. Ideally located near Preston Park station, highly regarded schools and Seven Dials, offering an excellent balance of Brighton living and convenient London access.

This light-filled home has been carefully maintained by the current owner for 25 years. The ground floor features a welcoming reception room with open fireplace, while to the rear is a spacious kitchen-dining room with large glazed doors and windows framing the far-reaching views, flooding the space with natural light and providing direct access to the garden. The generous rear garden is arranged over tiers, with multiple seating and entertaining areas.

The first floor includes two generous double bedrooms, a further bedroom/home office and a contemporary family bathroom.

The upper floor has been transformed into an impressive principal suite designed to maximise the exceptional outlook, with Juliet balcony, walk-in wardrobe, en-suite shower room and useful eaves storage.

A substantial dry basement offers excellent storage and exciting conversion potential, subject to the necessary consents - the neighbouring property has converted their basement into a kitchen-dining room with bifold doors onto the garden.

A wonderful family home and a fantastic investment in a highly sought-after location.

Being in a prime position just off Dyke Road, Preston Park Mainline Train Station is only a short walk away as is Preston Park itself and Dyke Road Park. OFSTED 'Outstanding' & 'Good' rated schools are close by being less than half a mile away and road networks into and out of the city are easily accessible as are buses located on Dyke Road.
