MEVAGISSEY

Mevagissey is a picturesque fishing village nestled between Pentewan and Gorran Haven. The village is steeped in history with many quaint fishermen's cottages set within cobbled streets. Local facilities include a primary school, an activity centre, small Mini Market, doctor's surgery, chemist, various gift shops and several restaurants and public houses. The town of St Austell is approximately 6 miles away and offers a wide range of shopping, large supermarkets and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools. The charming port of Charlestown and the award-winning Eden Project are within a short drive, as is the world renowned Lost Gardens of Heligan.

DIRECTIONS

From St Austell travel down South Street passing straight over the double roundabout passing the fast food services on your left hand side. Continue along this road (Pentewan Road) until reaching Mevagissey. Follow the road (Valley Road) turning left onto Chapel Square, turn right onto Church Street and then right into Market Square where this unit will be found behind Number 5 the restaurant.
