 Sought After Area In Locks Heath

We are delighted to bring to the market this detached three-bedroom Chalet Bungalow, situated in Locks Heath, offered with no forward chain.

Upon entering, the property offers a welcoming entrance with access to the principal living accommodation. The main bedroom is conveniently located on the ground floor, alongside the family bathroom, providing excellent flexibility and the potential for single-level living.

To the rear of the property is a spacious lounge, providing a comfortable setting for relaxing and enjoying time with family. The separate kitchen is also positioned towards the rear, offering a practical layout for everyday living. Beyond the kitchen is an additional seating area which is currently utilised as a dining room, creating a useful and versatile space for family meals, entertaining or simply relaxing.

Upstairs, there are two further well-proportioned double bedrooms.

To the rear of the property is a impressive garden offering plenty of space for outdoor enjoyment, entertaining and family activities. The property further benefits from a detached garage, providing useful additional storage, while to the front is a private driveway offering off-road parking.

Locks Heath Park Road is situated in a well-established residential part of Locks Heath, conveniently positioned for the area's range of everyday amenities. Locks Heath Shopping Centre is nearby, providing a selection of shops, cafés and essential services, while local schools are also within easy reach. The area benefits from good transport connections, with Swanwick railway station providing rail links and the M27 offering convenient access towards Southampton, Portsmouth and Fareham.
