£350,000

Found in the charming town of Ryde, this elegant semi-detached Victorian house offers a delightful blend of modern living and historical character. Spanning an impressive 1,667 square feet across three storeys, this property has been thoughtfully refurbished and converted in 2015 from its previous life as a local public house, ensuring a unique charm that sets it apart.

Upon entering, you are greeted by generous reception rooms that boast high ceilings and large windows, creating a wonderfully light and airy atmosphere throughout. The spacious layout is perfect for both family living and entertaining guests. The extensive kitchen/diner is a standout feature, seamlessly connecting to the south-facing rear garden, making it an ideal space for al fresco dining and enjoying the sunshine.

The property comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space for family or guests, along with two modern bathrooms that cater to the needs of a busy household. The upper floor reveals far-reaching views across Ryde, including the picturesque countryside on the outskirts of town, offering a serene backdrop to your daily life.

Additionally, the property benefits from parking for up to three vehicles, a much welcomed attribute for modern living. This semi-detached Victorian house is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice, combining the elegance of its historical roots with the conveniences of contemporary living. Whether you are looking for a family home or simply hanker for more space, this property is sure to impress.
