Built in the early 1930s with its distinctive blue glazed pantile roof, Cornerways is a house full of character, where original period features have been carefully preserved and blended with tasteful modern updates to create a home that feels both elegant and wonderfully comfortable. From the moment you arrive, the mature gardens and sweeping gravel driveway create an immediate sense of privacy. Inside, the warmth of original pine floorboards, parquet flooring, fireplaces and traditional panelled doors tell the story of the home's heritage.

The sitting room is centred around a wood-burning stove that makes it the perfect place to unwind. A separate dining room is ideal for family dinners and entertaining, while the generous kitchen/breakfast room provides the hub of everyday life. Beyond, the light-filled garden room enjoys uninterrupted views of the established gardens.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms continue the home's timeless appeal. The principal bedroom benefits from a beautifully enclosed balcony overlooking the gardens. The bedrooms are served by a recently updated family shower room, finished to an exceptional standard with elegant marble tiling, quality brass fittings and a contemporary walk-in shower.

Outside, the established gardens are a true highlight, with mature trees, colourful planting and generous lawns. A garage, greenhouse and garden shed provide excellent storage and versatility.

Character homes of this quality are increasingly difficult to find. Combining timeless 1930s architecture with beautifully maintained interiors, stylish modern improvements and delightful gardens, Cornerways offers a rare opportunity to enjoy village living in a home that is every bit as welcoming as it is distinctive.

South Wootton

ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF AN HISTORIC MARKET TOWN

Positioned on the northern edge of King's Lynn, South Wootton offers an enviable lifestyle that combines the convenience of town living with immediate access to some of West Norfolk's most beautiful countryside and coastline. Popular with families and professionals alike, the area enjoys a strong community feel alongside excellent everyday amenities, schooling and leisure facilities.

Life here is wonderfully well connected. King's Lynn railway station provides direct services to London King's Cross in approximately 1 hour and 40 minutes, making the area particularly appealing for those seeking a balance between countryside living and city accessibility. Nearby shopping centres, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants ensure everything needed for modern living is close at hand, while independent eateries and historic pubs across the town add to the area's character and charm.

Moments away, the Royal Sandringham Estate offers miles of woodland walks, cycling routes and open parkland to explore throughout the seasons, while the North Norfolk coastline lies within easy reach. From the expansive beaches at Brancaster and Holkham to the traditional seaside charm of Old Hunstanton, the coastline provides endless opportunities for sailing, golf, walking and dining by the sea.

For golf enthusiasts, King's Lynn Golf Club sits close by, with the renowned links courses at Hunstanton and Royal West Norfolk in Brancaster also within easy reach.

Steeped in maritime history, King's Lynn itself remains one of Norfolk's most architecturally rich towns. Medieval merchants' houses, cobbled lanes and landmark buildings such as the Custom House and King's Lynn Minster reflect centuries of trade and prosperity, while a thriving cultural scene, markets and riverside setting continue to make it one of the county's most vibrant and well-connected places to live.
