Hive Estates presents this stunning newly refurbished period apartment in Jesmond to the market. Set over 3 floors and designed to a high standard with bespoke fixtures and fittings and luxury furnishings throughout.

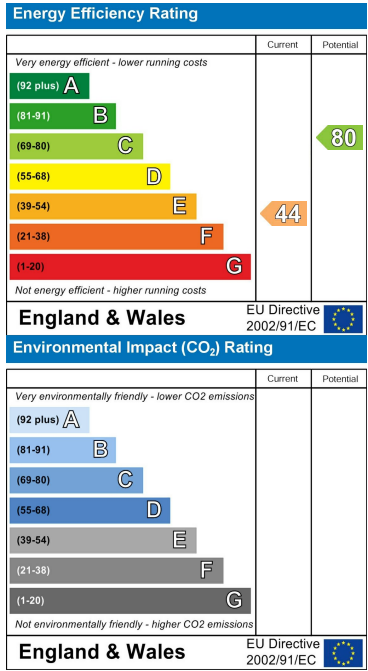

The apartment has a full width living room with stunning dual aspect windows and an original marble fireplace. There's a separate kitchen with dining space, industrial style down lights and high gloss grey cupboards and units with impressive geometric flooring. The property has thick pile grey carpet throughout, with the exception of the kitchen and the two fully tiled bathrooms. There's a stylish grey colour scheme throughout this property, with the contrast between light and dark used to great effect with contemporary furnishings having been carefully placed to help each room reach its full potential. Much of the original period features and character have been retained with this careful refurbishment, which only enhances its visual appeal upon viewing.

The two bedrooms are both doubles, one on the first floor and the other on the top floor with a beautifully tiled en-suite and walk in shower. The master bedroom has a quintuple wardrobe with matching bedside tables and a luxury bed with chesterfield headboard. Both bathrooms feature roll top baths, a patterned tiled floor and metro tiled walls with inset shelves in the showers. There's a walk in shower in the master, complete with ornate fittings and a corner shower unit in the main bathroom. Both radiators are in keeping with the style of this property. The property has access to a shared garden to the front, and is in a popular residential location on the picturesque street of St George's Terrace in the heart of Jesmond. Walking distance to the West Jesmond Metro station, Waitrose on Osborne Road and Tesco on Acorn Road along with an impressive array of boutique shops, cafes, restaurants and bars!
