Whatman Road, SE23

A beautifully presented Victorian family home situated on a sought-after residential street, offering five bedrooms and two bathrooms across well-proportioned accommodation. Combining period charm with generous living space and modern finishes, this impressive home provides an excellent opportunity for family living and is offered to the market chain free.

A bright and characterful four bedroom home arranged over three floors, blending period charm with a modern finish. Featuring a welcoming reception room with a beautiful period fireplace, generous dining room and well-appointed kitchen with direct garden access. High ceilings, natural light and original features create a warm and airy feel, with three bedrooms and a shower room on the first floor, and two further bedrooms, a family bathroom and useful eaves storage on the second floor.

Whatman Road is set within a popular residential neighbourhood, conveniently located for Honor Oak Park, Forest Hill and Crofton Park, with excellent transport links, independent shops, cafés and restaurants close by. The area is popular with families, with a number of well-regarded schools nearby, while green spaces including Blythe Hill Fields, One Tree Hill and Horniman Gardens are all within easy reach.
