Description

An excellent opportunity to acquire a rarely available end-terraced home, forming part of an attractive converted traditional stone-built property in the highly sought-after Leith area of Edinburgh. Ideally positioned just a few minutes' walk from The Shore and nearby tram links, the property combines traditional character with stylish contemporary living. Beautifully presented throughout, the home has been thoughtfully decorated in a sophisticated palette of warm, earthy tones, creating a welcoming and relaxed feel. The accommodation comprises an inviting entrance, a bright and spacious living room, inner hallway with useful utility cupboard and downstairs WC, and a modern kitchen/dining room fitted with quality wall and base units, providing an excellent space for everyday living and entertaining. Upstairs are two well-proportioned, light-filled double bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom with bath, glass screen and mains-operated shower. Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing and excellent storage, including a floored attic and additional eaves space. Externally, the property enjoys a landscaped courtyard, private garden area and residents' parking. Offering stylish interiors, generous accommodation and an enviable location close to The Shore's excellent restaurants, cafés and amenities, early viewing is highly recommended.

Location

Situated approximately two miles north of Edinburgh's city centre, the vibrant Shore area was once a thriving port at the heart of the capital's maritime industry. Falling within a conservation area characterised by its narrow, cobbled streets and continental-style waterfront, the area exudes a charming, small-town ambience that is worlds away from the hustle and bustle of the city. The Shore is renowned for its buzzing arts and social scene, which is fuelled by a fabulous selection of galleries and boutiques, trendy bars and award-winning eateries, including no fewer than three Michelin-starred restaurants. For foodies, Leith Market (every Saturday) is the perfect place to pick up fresh local produce, before tucking into some delicious street food. The Shore enjoys fantastic public transport links into the city centre and is just a five minute walk from the nearest tram stop. It also provides swift and easy access to Edinburgh City Bypass, Edinburgh International Airport, and the M8/M9 motorway networks.
