Internal Accessed via a communal entrance, this first-floor apartment forms part of an attractive converted period residence and offers well-arranged, light-filled accommodation ideally suited to modern coastal living. The layout is simple yet functional, providing a comfortable and low-maintenance home in a highly desirable central location. The main studio room is well proportioned, offering ample space for both living and sleeping areas. The separate fitted kitchen is thoughtfully arranged, providing practical workspace and storage, while the bathroom is fitted with a suite to meet everyday needs. Although compact in design, the property makes efficient use of space throughout, creating a comfortable and manageable living environment. With its characterful setting, central position, and straightforward layout, this apartment presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a conveniently located coastal home or investment.

Location Situated in one of Worthing's most sought-after central postcodes and less than 100 metres from the seafront, this location offers the perfect balance of coastal living and town-centre convenience. You'll be within easy walking distance of some of the area's best restaurants, cafés, and local amenities, while leisure opportunities abound with the nearby award-winning Splashpoint Leisure Centre, featuring two swimming pools, a spa, and a gym. Families will appreciate the three adjacent parks and a sea-inspired children's playground, all conveniently located next to Splashpoint. Commuters are also well served, with Worthing train station providing regular services along the coast and direct links to London.
