Lourdes Close, SE13

Set within the Blackheath Conservation Area, this beautifully presented four double bedroom townhouse offers over 2,000 sq ft of versatile accommodation, thoughtfully designed for modern family life. Generous, light-filled living spaces create a welcoming home for everyday living and entertaining with an East facing garden.

Arranged over three floors, the home opens into a spacious, light-filled hallway on the ground floor, leading to a well-proportioned reception room and a kitchen diner with high-end integrated appliances. Large bi-fold doors open onto a peaceful, well-maintained east-facing garden. The first floor offers a second reception room and two well-proportioned double bedrooms, while the second floor provides a further two en-suite bedrooms with double glazed sash windows throughout.

Blackheath is superbly connected to central London. Blackheath Station is a short walk away, with regular trains to London Bridge, Charing Cross and Cannon Street, while Lewisham Station is moments away for DLR connections into the city. Green space is on your doorstep too, with Blackheath Common, Manor House Gardens and Greenwich Park, home to the Royal Observatory, all close by.
