SITUATION

Old Home is situated in the heart of Kintbury, a popular village within a Conservation Area and an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The house is within walking distance of the post office/shop, train station, doctor's surgery and primary school. There are also two public houses and a church within the village.

Communications are excellent with trains from Kintbury to Paddington taking approximately 60 minutes. The A34 and J13 of the M4 are approximately 5 and 8.5 miles respectively.

A wider range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities are available in Hungerford and Newbury. In addition to the village school there are a number of well-regarded state and independent schools in the area including St Bartholomew's, Thorngrove, St Gabriels and Downe House.

Distances: Hungerford 3 miles, Newbury 8 miles, M4 J.13 8.5 miles, Kintbury to London Paddington 60 minutes (All distances and times are approximate).

THE PROPERTY

The entrance hall leads to an open-plan kitchen and dining area, opening into a bright snug with French doors to a seating area and cosy sitting room with a wood-burning stove. A Playroom with a log burner completes the ground floor. Bifold doors from the kitchen lead to the garden. Also on this floor are a back hall, WC and stairs leading down to a tanked cellar.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom features lovely field views and an en suite with bath, shower and double basin. There are three further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Mainly laid to lawn with mature flower beds, the garden includes a large patio, an office and a shed with storage heaters. It also boasts a gazebo seating area with far-reaching countryside views.
