Situated within the well-maintained Larmenier Retirement Village, this charming two-bedroom first-floor apartment is set on a quiet, private estate near to all the facilities that Blackburn has to offer. Designed for the over 60s, it offers a peaceful and welcoming retirement lifestyle.

The property comprises a bright lounge, contemporary fitted kitchen, two generous double bedrooms and an accessible shower room. Large windows throughout provide lovely views over the beautifully maintained communal gardens, creating a light and relaxing atmosphere.

Residents benefit from a range of on-site facilities, including a restaurant, coffee shop, cinema, hairdressing salon, chapel and minibus service. The building also has both stairs and a lift, with ample resident and visitor parking available.

The property is subject to an annual service charge, payable in monthly instalments.

This apartment is ideal for those seeking a supportive retirement community with excellent facilities and convenient access to Blackburn town centre and transport links.

Some photos have been virtually staged to illustrate the potential layout and appearance of the property.
