DESCRIPTION

This stunning, recently converted detached home in the pretty village of Thorganby offers a tranquil countryside lifestyle with around 1,700 sq. ft. of flexible space designed for easy, everyday living.

The ground floor centres around a bright, spacious living room and a welcoming kitchen with adjoining dining area, creating a natural hub for cooking and social gatherings, whilst enjoying views of the surrounding countryside. There is a stylish downstairs bathroom and spacious double bedroom, currently used as a home office and second lounge. Beyond the kitchen is a practical, good-sized boot and utility space with a back door leading out to the garden.

Upstairs, the recently converted roof space offers an impressive master bedroom with walk-in wardrobe and good-sized second double bedroom, both enjoying skylight views, useful eaves storage and a peaceful, tucked-away atmosphere. A contemporary bathroom with a large walk-in shower and separate bath completes the floor.
The property benefits from a modern Air Source heating system installed in 2024 and providing oil-free, efficient energy.
Outside, the wraparound garden offers ample space to relax and enjoy the open rural backdrop, with lawned areas and an established hedgerow providing excellent privacy. As well as the garage, the property benefits from a driveway with off-street parking for two vehicles.

Thorganby is a friendly village surrounded by nature, with walking routes, wild swimming at nearby Pool Bridge Farm, cycling trails and the Lower Derwent Valley close by. York, Wheldrake, Skipwith and the A64 are all easily reached, whilst the number 18 bus provides direct access to York city centre six times a day. This is a beautiful rural home offering a wonderful balance of countryside living and everyday convenience.
