Plot 172 The Mackenzie Lethington Gardens

HADDINGTON | EH41 3EB

Welcome to the Mackenzie, a truly showstopping four bedroom home – with highlights including a detached garage, two reception rooms, and two en-suite bedrooms.

There's also an open plan lounge, kitchen with utility, and dining area with French doors out to the garden, and the lounge can be sectioned off with sliding doors if you want to break up the spaces. The beautiful design has been thoughtfully created with your needs in mind, offering both space and flexibility. You can take a closer look at the layout by taking the virtual tour of our Mackenzie show home at Lethington Gardens.

Situated on the western edge of the pretty market town of Haddington in East Lothian. There's a home for everyone here, ranging from two and three-bedroom terrace, three-bedroom semi-detached and detached to four and five-bedroom detached properties. Part of a wider masterplan by a number of housing developers, Lethington Gardens will benefit from a new primary school, parks, play areas and a central hub of small shops and businesses.
