Location

Ashleigh Road sits in a particularly appealing pocket of Mortlake, offering a calm, residential feel with excellent access to the amenities that matter to singles, professional couples, and young families. Mortlake Station is within easy reach, providing direct services to London Waterloo in around 25 minutes, while bus routes link smoothly to Richmond, Hammersmith, and Putney.

One of the area's great advantages is its proximity to Barnes, a charming village-like neighbourhood known for its independent shops, riverside pubs, weekend markets, and the London Wetland Centre. Barnes Bridge and Barnes stations add further transport flexibility, and its café culture and green spaces offer an easy extension of East Sheen's lifestyle appeal.

Leisure opportunities around Cowley Road are exceptional. Richmond Park is close by, giving residents access to vast open spaces for running, cycling, and relaxed weekend picnics. The Thames Path offers scenic riverside walks and a choice of rowing and fitness clubs.

East Sheen's high street brings a friendly village atmosphere with artisan bakeries, stylish brunch spots, and well-regarded gastropubs. For culture, Richmond's theatres, cinemas, and riverside restaurants are only a short journey away.

Families value the strong educational offering, with Thomson House and Barnes Primary well-regarded, alongside excellent nurseries and independent schools.

Ashleigh Road blends tranquillity, connectivity, and community, with Barnes adding an extra layer of charm and convenience.

The Property

A warm, character-filled Edwardian home with its own front door and a private garden, the kind of place that instantly feels right. Set on a quiet residential street just moments from the buzz of White Hart Lane, this beautifully presented ground-floor apartment offers the perfect blend of period charm and surprisingly generous space. Whether you're a professional working from home, a couple looking to settle into the area, or a small family wanting a cosy base with room to grow, this flat has a way of fitting around your life.

Step through your own private front door (no communal hallways here), the large front room makes a fabulous principal bedroom, or depending on how you use the space, a wonderful living room.

Bedroom 2 is another good double with a fitted wardrobe and would make a perfect guest room or study.

The lounge and modern kitchen are at the rear of the flat, the kitchen includes a dishwasher, gas hob, electric oven, washing machine and fridge, so everything where you need it.

The large bathroom has a bath with overhead shower and excellent storage.

The private garden is an inviting spot to arrange potted plants, enjoy a morning coffee, set up an outdoor sofa or relax with a glass of wine at the end of the day. With a patio heater, it's a space you could make the most of throughout the year.
