Location

Masham is a small market town and civil parish in the Harrogate district of North Yorkshire to the North of Ripon in Lower Wensleydale close to the Yorkshire Dales. The town itself is well served with a co op for everyday needs and larger supermarkets close by in nearby Ripon, easily accessible by car or the 138 bus service. The Georgian Market Place is a lovely setting with a range of independent shops, pubs and restaurants and Swinton Park Hotel and Spa is also close by. Junction 50 of the A1(M) is also easily accessible for commuters with Harrogate, Leeds, York, Teeside and Newcastle all within an hours drive.

Although Masham is a relatively small town it has two working breweries, Black Sheep Brewery and Theakstons, situated only a few hundred yards from one another. The Masham Steam Engine & Fair Organ Rally has held annually, organised by the Masham Town Hall Association; it began in 1965 to raise money for the local town hall.
