£800,000

A beautifully refurbished five-bedroom family home offering over 2,200 sq ft of flexible living space, with a timeless shaker-style kitchen, separate living room, playroom and home office. Set within the sought-after Watercolour development, it enjoys views across the lake and open fields, alongside a garage, allocated parking and a low-maintenance garden.

There is an immediate sense of space and calm to this beautifully refurbished home on The Moors. Set within the popular Watercolour development and offering more than 2,200 sq ft across three floors, it has the scale for a growing family needs, without losing the warmth and character that make a house feel like home.

The kitchen and dining room is where much of everyday life naturally comes together. Shaker-style cabinetry, quartz worktops and herringbone underfloor heating create a timeless finish, with plenty of room for family dinners, slow weekend mornings and entertaining friends. The separate living room provides a more relaxed setting, while the playroom gives toys, homework and family life a space of their own. It could equally work as a snug or home office as your needs change.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is a generous and peaceful retreat, positioned alongside two further bedrooms and two bathrooms. The top floor adds another bedroom, a separate office and further bathroom facilities, creating a wonderfully flexible space for guests, older children or working from home.

The garden has been designed to be attractive yet easy to maintain, making it a space to enjoy rather than another weekend job. Beyond it sits a private garage and allocated parking space, with EV charging port.

Watercolour is especially popular with families for its waterways, open green spaces and genuine sense of community, all while keeping Redhill town centre and its direct London train links within easy reach. A sizeable, thoughtfully finished home that feels perfectly suited to modern family life.
