THE PROPERTY

Sold (stc) by Adams

A substantially extended 1920s home that offers exceptionally flexible accommodation just half a mile from the heart of Winchcombe. This deceptively spacious semi-detached house features a versatile snug which, served by the adjacent ground-floor bathroom, functions perfectly as a fourth bedroom for guests or multi-generational living.

The true heart of the house is the expansive kitchen and dining room—a magnificent, light-filled hub designed for social family living and entertaining. There is also a comfortable separate sitting room on this floor. Moving upstairs, the landing connects to a well-appointed principal bedroom complete with its own private ensuite, alongside two further bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

Externally, the beautifully stocked gardens provide a private sanctuary. Practicality is prioritised with secure gated parking for multiple vehicles and a detached garage.

With the added benefit of no onward chain, this property represents a rare opportunity to secure a substantial, modernised character home in a prime location.

SITUATION

Winchcombe is an ancient Saxon town, beautifully situated on the famous Cotswold Way, just 7 miles north-east of Cheltenham. This location offers excellent connectivity (approx. 2hrs to London Paddington by train from Cheltenham), with Broadway 8 miles and Gloucester 16 miles away.

Nestled within the Cotswolds National Landscape (formerly the AONB), the town features many listed properties. The thriving community provides an excellent range of amenities, including independent shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, doctors/dental surgeries, and a library, plus a primary and a secondary school.

A stone's throw from the town centre lies the magnificent Sudeley Castle, a historic Tudor jewel and the final resting place of Queen Katherine Parr. Residents and visitors alike enjoy a year-round calendar of prestigious events ranging from the magical 'Spectacle of Light' in winter to summer outdoor theatre and artisan festivals.

The town's cultural and recreational life is further enhanced by the Isbourne Arts Centre, a vibrant venue for music, drama, and community events; and the Winchcombe Park, which offers a Multi-Use Games Area (MUGA), a skate park, an outdoor gym, and picnic areas, strengthening the local community spirit.
