Description

27 Princess Court is situated on the second floor (with lift access) and enjoys a good outlook over Princess Road.

Princess Court is situated a short walk from the town centre, where there are an excellent range of shopping facilities and the railway and bus station are both within easy reach. The apartments collectively provide a safe environment with alarm service and intercom entry. There are both communal areas to the interior of the building as well as maintained attractive communal gardens and a roof garden to the third floor. In addition, there is car parking for guests and residents and a resident managing agent.

The service charge covers the building insurance, cleaning of the communal areas and the day to day management of the apartment covered by the estate manager.
