ASPEN WAY MORPETH NE61 3BF

A well presented four bedroom detached family home occupying an enviable position within St Andrews Gardens, Morpeth, enjoying an attractive open outlook to the front towards a wooded area together with a high degree of privacy to the rear and a westerly facing rear garden.

The thoughtfully arranged accommodation briefly comprises: a welcoming entrance hall, ground floor WC, a useful home office ideal for remote working, a comfortable lounge with French doors opening onto the rear garden, and a superb open plan kitchen diner also featuring French doors to the rear, creating an ideal space for both everyday family living and entertaining.

To the first floor, the master bedroom benefits from an ensuite shower room, alongside three further well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom/WC.

Externally, the property has gardens to both the front and rear, with the westerly aspect providing excellent afternoon and evening sunlight, while the rear garden also enjoys a good degree of privacy. A detached garage is situated to the side, together with off-street parking and an EV charging point, while solar panels are fitted to the main roof, offering practical, energy efficient and convenient family living.

Situated within a well regarded residential development, the home provides easy access to Morpeth town centre with its excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants, schooling and leisure facilities, as well as strong transport links including the A1 and mainline rail services to Newcastle, Edinburgh and London.

An excellent opportunity to acquire a spacious, well positioned and energy conscious family home within a sought after development

TENURE & COUNCIL TAX BAND

Freehold - We cannot verify the Tenure of the property as we do not have access to the documentation.

Title contains restrictions or restrictive covenants

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further: - Certificate restriction: No transfer of the registered estate (no sale or other transfer) can be registered unless a certificate is provided, signed by Kingston Property Services Limited, confirming that the provisions of clauses 13 and 14 of the Third Schedule of the Transfer dated 5 February 2016 have been complied with. In plain terms: you cannot register a sale or certain changes affecting the title unless Kingston Property Services confirms specific conditions in that Transfer have been met. You must obtain the certificate before sale or registration. - Charge-holder consent (Santander): No transfer of the registered estate may be registered without a written consent signed by the current proprietor of the Santander charge dated 5 February 2016. In plain terms: Santander must give written permission for the registration of any transfer. - Charge-holder consent (Homes and Communities Agency): No transfer of the registered estate may be registered without a written consent signed by the current proprietor of the Homes and Communities Agency charge dated 5 February 2016. In plain terms: the Homes and Communities Agency must give written permission for the registration of any transfer. - Restrictive covenants in transfers: The title is subject to restrictive covenants set out in the Transfer dated 18 December 2014, the Transfer of the Substation dated 7 December 2015, and the Transfer dated 5 February 2016. Restrictive covenants limit what you may do with the property (for example they commonly restrict types of buildings, uses, or alterations). The exact limits are contained in those documents and should be checked—they may affect extensions, fences, business use, or other changes to the property.

Title contains beneficial rights or easements

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:- The land has the benefit of any legal easements granted by the Transfer dated 5 February 2016. In plain terms: the owners may have positive rights over neighbouring land (for example rights of way, rights for services, or rights of support) that were granted in that Transfer—check the Transfer to see what was granted. - The land is subject to rights reserved by the Transfer dated 18 December 2014. In plain terms: the developer reserved certain rights over the land when selling it (for example access, drainage, or maintenance rights) and those reserved rights still affect the property. - The land is subject to rights granted by the Transfer of the Substation dated 7 December 2015. In plain terms: the electricity company (or other party named in that deed) likely has rights to use part of the land for substation equipment, cables or access. Check the substation Transfer to see the exact rights and where they apply.

Estate charges are payable for Aspen Way, we have been advised the charge is currently £TBC per year.
