THE OVERVIEW

Guide Price Of £475,000 - £500,000

Leeside occupies a generous plot, set well back from the road and approached via an attractive horseshoe driveway, providing ample parking for several vehicles. Secure gated side access leads to an impressive double garage, with further parking available.

THE HOME

The home itself offers a wonderful degree of versatility, thoughtfully arranged over two floors and providing four bedrooms in total. The ground floor offers two bedrooms, alongside a spacious family bathroom, while the first floor provides two further bedrooms, complemented by a separate WC, making the layout particularly appealing for families, multi-generational living or those requiring flexible additional space.

The heart of the home is centred around the kitchen and adjoining dining room, with a separate utility room providing additional practicality. The generous sitting room is a particularly appealing feature, measuring over 21ft in length and offering plenty of space for both relaxation and entertaining. With its well-balanced arrangement of living and sleeping accommodation, the home provides a fantastic opportunity for a variety of buyers seeking space, flexibility and versatility.

THE OUTSIDE

Externally, the home is complemented by beautifully maintained gardens, featuring a manicured lawn alongside attractive decorative borders, thoughtfully planted with a variety of mature trees, colourful flowers and established shrubs. A generous sun-drenched terrace provides the perfect space for outdoor dining and entertaining. The gardens wrap around the property, offering access to an impressive double garage with power and lighting connected, together with secure gated side access leading back to the front of the home

THE LOCATION

The home is ideally positioned close to the Blue Flag beach, with a range of coastal activities and attractions nearby. Dovercourt town centre offers a variety of shops and everyday amenities, while a selection of primary and secondary schools are also within easy reach. Two nearby railway stations provide convenient links to London Liverpool Street.
