This thoughtfully designed home unfolds across the ground and lower ground floors, offering a flexible layout ideal for both modern living and entertaining. The ground floor is centred around an expansive kitchen and reception space, with clearly defined areas for cooking, dining and relaxing. The room flows naturally and is supported by a separate utility area and additional practical spaces, creating a setting that works well for everyday life and hosting guests.

The lower ground floor is devoted almost entirely to bedroom accommodation, providing a peaceful retreat away from the entertaining spaces above. There are four bedrooms arranged off the hallway, making the layout suitable for family living. The principal bedroom is discreetly positioned and benefits from close access to a bathroom. The remaining bedrooms are all well laid out, each offering flexibility as bedrooms or guest rooms.
