

Bramshot Avenue, SE7

£425,000

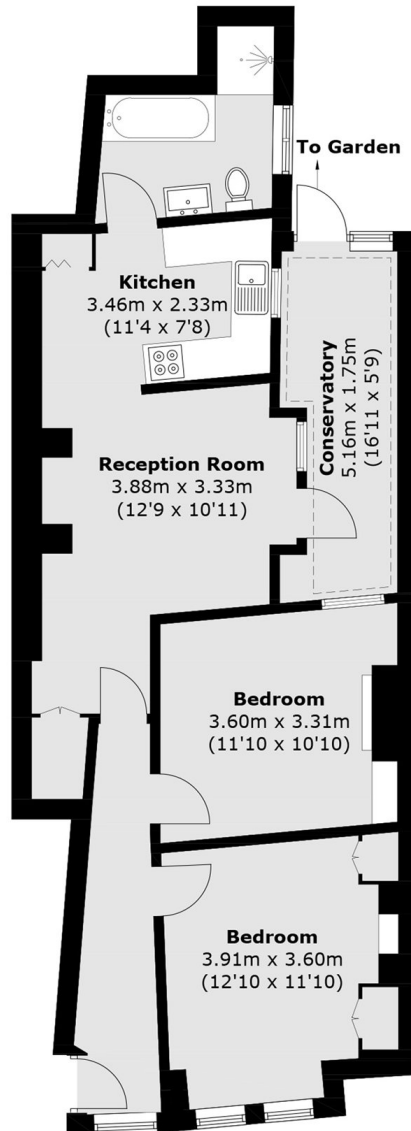

This beautifully designed two-bedroom garden maisonette spans over 700 sq ft and occupies the ground floor of a Victorian terraced property. The home features a rear reception room, ideal for entertaining. A long entrance hall leads to two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a well-equipped kitchen with classic white gloss units. The kitchen flows into a stylish four-piece bathroom and out to a superb private garden. To the side, there is a conservatory currently used as an office and utility room, with potential to extend (STPP). This leads to a well-established private garden with a patio area, offering a wonderfully secluded feel.

The property is ideally located for Westcombe Park station, with easy access to buses serving North Greenwich and the Elizabeth Line. It is also close to Greenwich Park and Blackheath Royal Standard, with its range of cafés, shops, and restaurants.
