Nestled in the vibrant and highly sought-after area of Walthamstow, this charming five-bedroom Victorian terraced house seamlessly blends period character with modern living. This generously proportioned home boasts a thoughtfully executed loft conversion, providing ample space for a growing family or those desiring flexible accommodation.

The heart of the home lies in its spacious kitchen-diner, a perfect hub for entertaining and everyday family life. Beyond this, a private rear garden offers a tranquil outdoor retreat, ideal for relaxation and al fresco dining.

The property benefits from its excellent location within Walthamstow, providing easy access to a wealth of local amenities. Residents can enjoy the inviting atmosphere of Dudley's cafe, a local favourite for coffee and brunch, or savour the delightful flavours of Balkan cuisine at The Lacy Nook restaurant. The historic Walthamstow Trades Hall, a community hub with a rich programme of events, is also within close proximity.

Commuting is convenient with Wood Street Overground station just a short stroll away, connecting residents to central London and beyond. Furthermore, the property is enviably situated nearby to the charming and historic Walthamstow Village, with the popular Orford Road home to independent shops, and a variety of pubs and eateries. This impressive Victorian residence offers an exceptional blend of space, style, and a fantastic community setting.
