SUTHERLAND AVENUE, MAIDA VALE W9

The home opens to a panelled hallway, which leads into the capacious open-plan kitchen and reception room. It's a thoroughly uplifting scene, featuring full-height bay windows. The kitchen is complete with high-tech appliances that are seamlessly integrated into the design; note the fridge, discreetly incorporated into custom-made cubic shelving. A large mezzanine level bolsters the spacious appeal, introduced by a fixed ladder. Configured as a glass box, the conservatory and dining room are bathed in sunlight. The triple-glazed windows keep things thoroughly quiet and cosy. There is direct access to the long stretches of lawn and varied planting, as well as a private residents' tennis court.

One of West London's most picturesque neighbourhoods, Little Venice feels lifted out of a film set with its colourful barge boats, refined townhouses and tree-lined avenues. The canal is on your doorstep here, along with the independent boutiques and antiques dealers of Formosa Street.
