SITUATION & AMENITIES

Torridge View is situated in one of North Devon's most prestigious coastal communities – enjoying direct views over the River Torridge and across the estuary towards open countryside in the distance. The property enjoys wonderful sunsets, as well as the early morning sunlight reflecting off the pretty former fishing cottages in Appledore on the other side of the estuary. Instow is highly desirable and boasts an excellent range of amenities and leisure pursuits. There is a beautiful sandy beach, with the North Devon Yacht Club just a 2-minute walk away, where boats can be launched and moorings are understood to be available. Popular amenities include John's of Instow, which combines a delicatessen, convenience store, Post Office and café all under one roof. The Commodore Hotel and Restaurant – which is open to non-residents – and a variety of pubs and restaurants including The Instow Arms and The Boathouse, which is an award-winning seafood restaurant. The nearby Tarka Trail is a former railway line route which runs from Braunton to Meeth, covering about 30 miles with a series of connected footpaths, bridleways and cyclepaths which pass through some of the area's most beautiful scenery. There is also a good range of transport opportunities via regular bus routes and the ferry across the estuary to Appledore. The port and market town of Bideford is 3.5 miles and offers a wider range of amenities. The regional centre of Barnstaple is 6.5 miles and offers the area's main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues, as well as live theatre and district hospital. From Barnstaple there is access to the North Devon Link Road (A361) which leads through to Jct.27 of the M5 Motorway in about 45 minutes. There is also access there to Tiverton Parkway station where London Paddington can be reached in just over 2 hours. The nearest international airports are at Bristol and Exeter.

DESCRIPTION

This elegant double-fronted end of terrace period house – circa 1830/40 – is Grade II Listed as being of architectural and historical interest. The property presents painted rendered elevations beneath a slate roof. The accommodation is arranged over two floors and is deceptively generous. It is well presented, although would benefit from some general modernisation. All principal rooms enjoy frontline estuary views. There is a small strip of front garden, and to the rear a peaceful and secluded walled courtyard. Parking would need to be by permit in a local car park. The property is likely to appeal to prospective purchasers wanting a main residence, 2nd home, UK base, holiday let or a combination of these.
