‘Comice House’ Lakin Lane, Wold Newton, YO25 3YR

Nestled within the picturesque rural village of Wold Newton, this is a stylish modern home that offers a unique blend of contemporary living combined with countryside charm. This is a well presented home which features modern anthracite uPVC double glazed windows along with off-road parking and single garage. The village itself is conveniently situated betwixt Filey, Bridlington and Driffield which will be the main centres.

The accommodation itself includes well fitted kitchen, ground floor WC and rear facing lounge with dining area, having direct access onto the garden area, creating a real opportunity to enjoy the outdoors during all seasons.

The property is finished with neutral décor and the first floor offers two double bedrooms along with house bathroom.

Finally, the property benefits from the remaining part of an NHBC Warranty giving optimal peace of mind for buyers of all ages.

WOLD NEWTON

The picturesque village of Wold Newton is built around the Village Green and Pond into which the Gypsy Race flows. All Saints Church is hidden behind mature trees and also hidden from view is Wold Newton Hall, which is a Wesleyan Centenary Chapel built in 1839.

The village pub, the Anvil Arms is built on the site of the old Blacksmiths Shop and there is a brick column erected on the outskirts of the village, which marks the spot where a meteorite crashed to earth on 13th December 1775.
