PROPERTY SUMMARY

Situated on the ever-popular Overbury Street E5, this spacious four-bedroom home is being offered on a chain-free basis and presents an excellent opportunity for families seeking comfort, space, and convenience. Extending to approximately 1,268 sq ft, the property provides well-balanced accommodation throughout, ideal for modern living.

The ground floor welcomes you with a generous reception room, perfect for both entertaining and everyday family life. Large windows allow for an abundance of natural light, creating a bright and inviting setting. Upstairs, the property comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering ample space for relaxation, home working, or growing family needs. The layout is practical and versatile, making it easy to adapt to individual requirements.

Located within the vibrant Lower Clapton area of the London Borough of Hackney, the neighbourhood is particularly renowned for the ever-popular Chatsworth Road, known locally as "The Village." Offering a fantastic selection of independent cafés, restaurants, boutiques, and convenience stores, it also hosts a well-loved Sunday market that draws visitors from across East London. The property is within short walk of the expansive green open spaces of Hackney Marshes and Millfields Park, offering acres of parkland, riverside walks along the River Lea and outdoor leisure facilities ideal for families, runners, and dog walkers alike.

Clapton, Homerton, Hackney Central and Hackney Downs stations are all within easy reach, offering convenient connections into the City, West End and beyond. With well-regarded schools and everyday amenities close by, this property presents a superb opportunity to acquire a substantial family home in a well-connected and established East London neighbourhood.
