Guide Price 550,000 to £600,000

Situated in the heart of North Laine, this charming town house in Queens Gardens offers a delightful blend of period elegance and modern convenience. With its striking architectural features and attractive façade, this home is sure to capture your heart.

Arranged over three floors, the property boasts a versatile layout that includes two spacious double bedrooms with potential arrangement as four double bedrooms, kitchen diner, living room and an additional attic space. The ground floor features a split-level design with beautifully waxed original floorboards, leading to a lovely rear courtyard garden. This south-west facing outdoor space is adorned with fragrant jasmine and delicate climbing plants, making it ideal for summer relaxing or evening entertaining, complete with exterior lighting.

The ground floor living room is adaptable, offering the option to divide into two additional bedrooms if desired. Additionally, there is a utility area and stylish bathroom also on this level.

Stairs lead to the well-appointed open plan bespoke kitchen with quality solid wood surfaces, dining space and cosy seating area on the lower ground floor. This great space has built-in storage for added convenience and there is attractive limestone flooring throughout.

On the upper floor, two double bedrooms provide ample space and comfort, while the access to the boarded attic space with Velux window and radiator, adds further versatility to the property. This well-maintained home built in 1850 offers many original features, including original doors, fittings, banisters, floorboards and refurbished sash windows, with some being double glazed, as well as insulated loft and walls, ensuring energy efficiency and comfort throughout the seasons.

Offered with no onward chain, this property presents a wonderful opportunity for those seeking a charming residence in one of Brighton's most sought-after locations.
