Tucked away in the South Devon countryside, Wrescombe Court is a Grade II listed, five-bedroom former bank barn, now reimagined as an elegant country home extending over 5,839 sq ft. Originally constructed in the early 1800s to serve local farms, Wrescombe Court was built using traditional materials: granite quoins, dressed stone walls, and a slate roof. It underwent its initial residential conversion in the 1990s and has since been sensitively expanded and renovated by the current owners. Accessed via a quiet country lane, the house is discreetly positioned beyond a gated gravel driveway that opens into a central courtyard. The arrangement allows for ample parking and includes a four-bay car port, a sizeable workshop, and a wood store. Residents of the area are eligible for mooring rights and kayak storage on the River Yealm, making this location especially appealing for those drawn to life on the water.

Much of the original character of the barn has been beautifully preserved. Intimate, atmospheric spaces are complemented by rooms of exceptional scale and presence—among them, the Great Hall with its galleried landing above, and the newly extended games and leisure room, which opens directly onto a sun terrace with hot tub, framing far-reaching countryside views. The interiors have been thoughtfully curated to honour the building's heritage while serving as a warm and welcoming family home. The palette leans into soft, earthy tones, accentuating original architectural features—exposed beams, slate flagstones, and open fireplaces—all set against bespoke joinery and natural textures. The front door is positioned on the west-facing side of the house and opens into a welcoming entrance hall that immediately sets the tone. This spacious room can be enjoyed as a library, with its floor-to-ceiling bookshelves, or as a cosy, atmospheric snug. An impressive feature fireplace with wood-burning stove, exposed beams and stonework, and flagstone flooring all enhance the character of this wonderful space. On this level, two exceptionally spacious double bedrooms border the entrance hall, each with its own bathroom and garden outlook. A door in each opens directly onto the front garden and courtyard, lending a strong sense of connection to the landscape beyond.

The impressive farmhouse-style kitchen is designed for both functionality and enjoyment—ideal for entertaining, and very much a cook's kitchen. With a six-oven AGA at its heart, custom cabinetry, and a nod to deVOL in the hardware, this kitchen doesn't disappoint. A large breakfast area opens to a sunlit terrace via glazed double doors, perfect for al fresco meals or morning coffee. The Great Hall is a remarkable room with a vaulted ceiling and a magnificent open fireplace, ideal for gathering in winter. It offers ample space for both formal dining and relaxed evenings by the fire, making it a fabulous setting for entertaining or family gatherings. A bedroom with en suite completes this floor.

A galleried landing above gives access to the principal bedroom suite, which includes a walk-in dressing area and en suite bathroom with both a bath and a walk-in shower. Another double room, currently arranged as a music room, offers potential as a study or further bedroom.

The most recent addition to the house is a lower-ground extension: a multipurpose space for games or leisure, complete with sauna, cloakroom, and generous storage. Large sliding doors open onto a lower terrace where a cedar hot tub and outdoor shower allow full enjoyment of this peaceful retreat. Upstairs, a purpose-built laundry room has been designed to make even the most routine tasks more enjoyable.

BREAD

The parkland surrounding Wrescombe Court plays an integral role in the property's restorative setting. Thoughtfully planted borders wrap around a series of stone terraces, while gently rolling lawns extend outward—perfect for hosting informal gatherings or providing space for play and rest alike. A long concrete polished dining table and wood burning pizza oven set the stage for summer evenings, with various seating areas placed to follow the arc of the sun.

Further afield, the landscape transitions into wildflower meadows and young native woodland, part of an ongoing rewilding effort that supports pollinators and local wildlife. At the centre lies a lake with a timber pontoon and a shepherd's hut, available by separate negotiation.

Raised beds, two greenhouses, and a chicken coop form a thriving kitchen garden, offering the opportunity for a more self-sufficient lifestyle.

A paddock provides an excellent area of land for those looking to keep a pony or create a smallholding and require grazing.

Wrescombe Court enjoys a much-favoured setting within Devon's South Hams, a region celebrated for its unspoilt coastline, wooded valleys, and riverside villages. Set in the heart of an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the twin villages of Newton Ferrers and Noss Mayo offer an enviable coastal lifestyle. Overlooking the peaceful Yealm Estuary, this sought-after location is a haven for sailing enthusiasts and nature lovers alike. With the shimmering waters of the Yealm just moments from the property, it's an unrivalled setting for those drawn to life on the water, whether setting sail for coastal adventures, paddleboarding along tranquil inlets, or plunging into sheltered waters for a cold-water swim.

The children's sailing school at the village yacht club provides a perfect opportunity for young sailors to learn the ropes. The villages also offer a strong sense of community, with everything close at hand: a village co-op, post office, pharmacy, two churches, and a selection of three welcoming pubs, plus a popular delicatessen/café, a buzzing hub of village life, all just a stroll from the property. A thriving yacht club and a well-regarded primary school within walking distance add to the appeal. Throughout the year, the villages come alive with events, from regattas to festive gatherings.

For those who love the outdoors, spectacular coastal and countryside walks are on the doorstep, including the breathtaking South West Coast Path and National Trust-owned shoreline just moments away. With picturesque woodland trails and hidden coves waiting to be explored, the area offers a perfect balance of adventure and tranquillity. The nearby city of Plymouth provides a vibrant cultural scene, excellent transport links, and a highly regarded university, making it convenient for work, study, and leisure. For beaches, Mothecombe is just 15 minutes away, with a summer restaurant in the former schoolhouse.

Local schools include both state and independent options such as Devonport High School, Plymouth College, Ivybridge Community College and Coombe Dean, all with excellent bus links from the village. The well-regarded Newton Ferrers Primary School is a popular choice for the early years, alongside Venture: an OFSTED Outstanding Kindergarten in nearby Yealmpton. Inspired by the Scandinavian approach to education, it offers autonomous outdoor learning with access to the Kitley Estate and its woodlands—and on Fridays, they decamp to the spectacular Mothecombe Beach.
