A well appointed three bedroom 1930s home featuring a ground floor rear extension, private driveway, and a level rear garden. Ideally situated in a popular residential area of Worcester Park, the property is close to sought after schools, parks, and excellent transport links. Offered to the market with no onward chain, it presents an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to move swiftly.

Positioned in a quiet corner of Worcester Park the house is situated at the top of a cul de sac with no through traffic and enjoys a peaceful setting while being just over half a mile from the thriving high street and mainline station, offering fast services into central London in under 30 minutes.

This appealing home is ready for its next family to enjoy, having been thoughtfully extended to create a modern layout with a seamless flow and an abundance of natural light. You enter via an enclosed porch that leads into a traditional entrance hall with a warm and inviting feel. The main reception room offers generous living space, enhanced by a large bay window to the front aspect, and provides an ideal setting for relaxing or entertaining.

From here, you access an impressive rear extension that delivers the all important kitchen/dining/family room, an expansive social hub with direct access to the garden. The kitchen is fully fitted and also benefits from a secondary access point from the hallway.

Upstairs, there are two spacious double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, mirroring the proportions of the reception rooms below, along with a third bedroom that also works perfectly as a home office and access to a loft for storage. A modern family bathroom serves the first floor and completes the internal accommodation.

The property has gas central heating and double glazed windows throughout.

Outside, the sunny rear garden is well established, featuring a level lawn and a paved terrace that spans the width of the property, ideal for outdoor dining and family time. To the rear, a useful shed and gated access to a service path provide additional practicality.

Worcester Park offers a larger choice of amenities including a Waitrose, banks/building societies and other essential stores, as well as a variety of restaurants, Worcester Park also offers great access to public transport.

The property is within walking distance of Worcester Park mainline rail station with regular services to London and both the M25 and A3 are easily accessible, giving a straight forward route to London and both Heathrow and Gatwick international airports.

There are also local bus routes nearby giving convenient access to Morden underground making this freehold property ideal for commuters.
