Unique detached bungalow with no onward chain...

Located on the Milton Ernest heritage trail, this unique detached bungalow, which was once the former school house, is being offered to the market with no onward chain. Believed to have been built in 1854, the property is now a single storey dwelling overlooking the village green and the Primary School.

Named The Old School, the property has been modernised to include gas fired central heating, a modern bathroom and kitchen, and a PVCu double glazed conservatory to the rear. The living room offers a cosy space, with an electric fire, and a small dining room to the side.

Externally the property has an attractive enclosed south-facing garden with block paved patio, well stocked borders, and a garden shed. There is a small front garden and a parking space for one car.

Milton Ernest is a North Bedfordshire village with local amenities including a Primary School, hotel/Public House/restaurant, church, village hall and a garden centre, which also incorporates a Post Office, general store and a coffee shop. Just over four miles from Bedford and easily accessed via the A6 Clapham Bypass, Milton Ernest is an ideal location for those looking to enjoy all of the advantages of village life while having amenities to hand.
