The Property PA is delighted to present this substantial five-bedroom family home, offering an abundance of living space, beautiful period features and versatile accommodation throughout.

This charming property combines traditional character with neutral décor, high ceilings, decorative cornicing, original-style fireplaces and an impressive staircase.

The ground floor boasts four generously proportioned reception rooms, providing exceptional flexibility for family living, formal dining, entertaining or working from home. The spacious country-style kitchen features fitted cabinetry, wooden worktops, a traditional Belfast sink, an integrated oven and gas hob, with direct access to the outside.
