PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Kingswood Warren estate is widely regarded as one of the most desirable residential locations in the Surrey Hills, known for its peaceful setting, impressive homes, and tree-lined avenues. Properties here rarely come to the market, and those that do are often considered some of the finest homes in the county. It is therefore a genuine privilege to be able to bring to market one of the most distinctive and rare opportunities we have handled in over twenty-one years.

Hoyland Down offers over 2,700 sq ft of accommodation, thoughtfully arranged to provide both space and versatility. The home is one of two luxury apartments, the main residence is a substantial three-bedroom apartment with its own private access from both the front and rear, creating a real sense of independence and exclusivity. On the lower ground floor, there is a cinema room alongside a study/ancillary room, offering flexible space that could suit a range of uses depending on the needs of the next owner. In addition, the property benefits from a garage and separate guest studio, making it ideal for visitors, extended family, or even home office use.

Set behind private gates and approached via a generous open forecourt area, the property enjoys a sense of privacy and security while still retaining the welcoming feel of a home. Internally, Hoyland Down manages to successfully combine character features with modern standards, creating an environment that is both timeless and practical. For those looking to take the property even further, approved plans are available for a future side extension, providing scope to adapt and grow the home to suit evolving requirements.

This is a rare chance to acquire a property that not only offers space, with three meter height ceilings throughout, and flexibility but is also set in one of the most exclusive and well-regarded parts of Surrey.
