Camel Street, Marston Magna BA22 8DB

'The Old Smoke House' is a very pretty, natural stone, semi-detached, period Grade II listed, 17th century cottage that is a former historic smoke house but now a deceptively spacious, delightful four-bedroom cottage. This unique conversion has flexible accommodation extending to 2428 square feet. It is situated in a popular residential area close to the heart of the village and historic parish church. The property has driveway parking for three cars leading to a timber carport and attached double garage. There is a portion of level, lawned garden at the rear of the cottage enjoying an easterly aspect plus a private courtyard garden. The property is heated via electric radiators and a cast iron log burning stove plus it benefits from secondary double glazing on the front. There is a wealth of character features including heavy exposed beams, window seats, Inglenook fireplace and natural stone fireplace and original natural stone smoking alcove. The well-arranged, deceptively spacious, flexible accommodation enjoys a good level of natural light from dual aspects. It comprises dining hall, sitting room, lounge, kitchen breakfast room, inner hall, utility room and ground floor WC / cloakroom. On the first floor there is a large master bedroom with en-suite bathroom, two further double bedrooms and a family shower room. On the second floor there is a large attic room / double bedroom. The property is conveniently positioned a very short drive to the A303 trunk road to London and the South West. Marston Magna is a quaint village on the borders of Somerset and Dorset, full of period character properties and is only a short drive to the historic town centre of Sherborne with its superb boutique high street with cafes, restaurants, Waitrose store and independent shops plus the breath-taking Abbey, Almshouses and Sherborne's world-famous private schools. It is also a very short drive to the mainline railway station to London Waterloo. MUST BE VIEWED!
