

Brunel Road

London, SE16

Asking Price £850,000

A spacious three-bedroom end of terrace townhouse house set within a private gated development close to the River Thames. This well-presented home offers bright interiors, practical living spaces, and excellent potential to further enhance through a loft conversion or rear extension (STPP).

Located in the heart of SE16, the property benefits from its proximity to the Canada Water Masterplan, a major long-term regeneration project set to transform the local area with new homes, commercial space, retail, cultural amenities and high-quality public realm over the coming years.
