17 College Road is a premium property situated in a prime location, just minutes away from the main University campus. The property has all modern fittings, as well as seven bedrooms, six of them with double beds and three of them with their own en-suites. In addition, there are two bathrooms with large shower cubicles and a separate WC. In the kitchen there are two ovens and hobs, to make cooking with such a busy household an easy task. There are laundry facilities, two large fridge-freezers and a breakfast bar. The living room consists of three large sofas and has a wall-mounted television. All bills are included in the rent, making this property the perfect choice for students looking for hassle free, luxury student accommodation.
