£325,000

A well-presented two double bedroom ground floor maisonette located in South Norwood, benefiting from its own private front door and a share of freehold. The property offers a spacious lounge, a separate fitted kitchen, and a conservatory that provides additional living/dining space overlooking the private rear garden. Both bedrooms are good-sized doubles, making the home ideal for professionals, small families, or investors seeking a well-connected London base.

Transport Links

Excellent transport connections are available via Norwood Junction station, offering frequent direct services to London Bridge station in around 12–15 minutes, along with links to other central London destinations. Local bus routes and nearby tram services further enhance accessibility across South London and surrounding areas.

Local Area

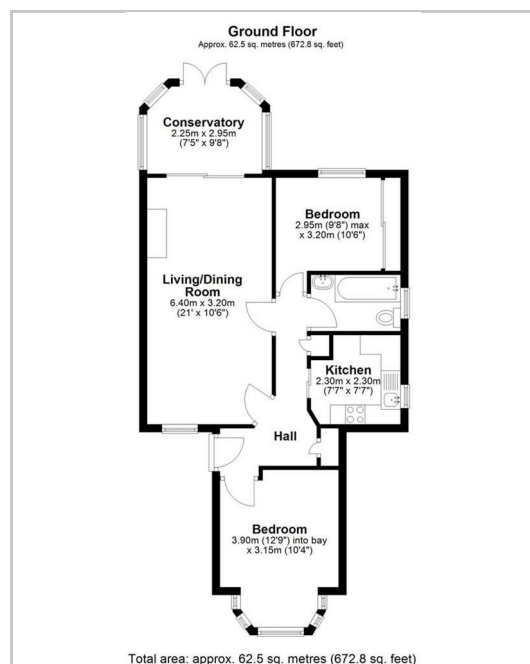

The property is conveniently situated close to local amenities and green spaces, including South Norwood Lake and Grounds, providing attractive outdoor leisure options alongside shops, cafés, and everyday conveniences.
