MERLEY GATE MORPETH NE61 2EP

A beautifully presented three bedroom detached bungalow, ideally situated on Merley Gate within the highly sought after and well established residential area of Loansdean, Morpeth.

This immaculate home offers well proportioned and versatile accommodation throughout, benefitting from double glazing and gas central heating. The internal layout briefly comprises: welcoming entrance hall, cloaks/WC, a spacious lounge diner providing an excellent space for both relaxing and entertaining, a well appointed kitchen, and a conservatory accessed via bedroom two. The second bedroom is currently utilised as an additional reception room, offering flexibility to suit a range of needs, alongside a third bedroom and a modern shower room/WC.

Externally, the property is set within beautifully maintained gardens to both the front and rear, creating an attractive and private setting. A double driveway provides ample off street parking and leads to a detached double garage, a rare and valuable feature.

The property is conveniently located for a range of local amenities within Loansdean, including shops, schools and regular public transport links, with easy access into Morpeth town centre. Morpeth itself offers a wider selection of amenities including supermarkets, independent shops, restaurants, leisure facilities and excellent transport connections, including rail links to Newcastle and beyond.

An outstanding home, finished to a high standard throughout, early viewing is highly recommended.

TENURE & COUNCIL TAX BAND

Freehold.

Title contains restrictions or restrictive covenants

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:

The property must only be used as a private home and for related residential purposes.

No buildings or structures can be built within 10 metres of the top (crown) of any trees on or bordering the land.

No buildings or structures can be built within 3 metres of the underground drains used for waste and rainwater (marked on the property plan).

Any buildings on the land must not be more than two storeys high.

The owner must not do anything on the property that causes a nuisance, damage, or annoyance to neighbours.

The existing hawthorn hedges must not be removed or have openings made in them, except where needed for a driveway or path.

Three specific ash trees on the property must be preserved and not removed.

The owner is not entitled to a 'right to light or air' if it would prevent the council or the developer from building on nearby land.

A right to light is a legal right to receive light through a window without obstruction.

The property is subject to rights held by others as set out in a 1988 document. This means others may have the right to enter or use parts of the land for specific reasons, like maintaining utility pipes.

There are specific rules regarding the maintenance and ownership of boundary structures, such as fences or walls.

The owner has promised to follow all the rules and restrictions (covenants) mentioned in previous legal documents.

Title contains beneficial rights or easements

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:- The property has the benefit of legal rights granted in a 1988 document. These 'easements' are positive rights for the owner, such as the right to use shared utility lines or access paths.

Council Tax Band: D (Source gov.uk checked May 2026).
