Occupying a premier position on one of Ruislip's most prestigious and sought-after roads, this unique eco friendly home offers a rare blend of architectural character and versatile living across three expansive floors with excellent transport links, highly regarded schools, and local amenities close by. The property is perfectly situated to take full advantage of stunning, tranquil views over the neighboring and award winning Kings College playing fields, providing a sense of open space and greenery that is truly rare for the area. The ground floor welcomes you with a vast, dual-aspect reception room designed for grand-scale entertaining, alongside a modern kitchen and breakfast room that serves as the heart of the home. As you move through the property, the first floor provides three well-appointed bedrooms and a large family bathroom, while the crowning jewel is found on the second floor. This level is dedicated to a sprawling principal suite featuring a private en-suite and a secluded upstairs terrace, offering an elevated vantage point to enjoy the surrounding views along with integrated air conditioning. A standout feature of this residence is the beautiful and unique glass window feature at the rear of the house, which floods the
