PROPERTY SUMMARY

A large and distinctive four bedroom detached family residence, enjoying a pleasant semi-rural setting within this prestigious cul-de-sac address in the highly sought-after village of Enville. The property offers a generous and versatile layout which would benefit from some updating, presenting excellent scope for improvement and personalisation. The accommodation includes three well-proportioned reception rooms together with four superb double bedrooms, two of which benefit from en-suite facilities. Externally, the property is complemented by a substantial driveway providing ample off-road parking, a double garage and an attractively arranged rear garden. Offered for sale with no upward chain.
