Alnwick is one of Northumberland's most desirable market towns, blending historic character with everyday convenience. Centred around the iconic Alnwick Castle and the beautifully landscaped The Alnwick Garden, the town offers an enviable lifestyle with independent shops, artisan cafés, traditional pubs and excellent schooling all within walking distance. With the dramatic Northumberland coastline just a short drive away and strong transport links north and south, Alnwick appeals equally to families, professionals, downsizers and those seeking a refined second-home base in a thriving, year-round community.
