Location

Stafford Way is a cul-de-sac that lies just off the Keymer Road, in the centre of the parish of Keymer opposite a library, close to a small group of shops, including a convenience store, café and a local village inn nearby.

Nestled beneath the South Downs, Hassocks is a vibrant village that provides an excellent array of local amenities which include a variety of shopping facilities, eateries, post office, health centre, nurseries and schools for all age groups. Adastra Park, which is located close to the high street, is a hub of activity featuring the village hall, social club, sports areas and children's play parks. Furthermore, at the top of the high street lies the main line railway station with regular services to London and the south coast. Surrounding the village is an abundance of stunning countryside and views of the South Downs national park, perfect for those seeking a semi-rural location.

- Hassocks Station (0.7 miles)
- Burgess Hill (2.5 miles)
- Brighton (8.7 miles)
- Gatwick Airport (23.4 miles)

Stunning views of The South Downs from nearby fields, Hassocks.
