DAVID ANDREW | your most valuable asset

This inviting one bedroom apartment presents a superb opportunity for those seeking comfort and convenience in a vibrant North London location.

Thoughtfully arranged across 446 square feet, the property features a well-proportioned bedroom and a separate living room / kitchen area, creating a clear division between relaxation and entertaining spaces. The fully fitted kitchen is designed to meet modern needs, offering ample storage and workspace, while the wooden flooring throughout the apartment adds a sense of warmth and continuity.

Set on a peaceful residential street within easy reach of both Crouch Hill and Finsbury Park stations, the location is particularly attractive, with an array of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants nearby, as well as excellent transport links connecting you swiftly to central London and beyond. The neighbourhood is known for its community feel and leafy surroundings, making it a popular choice for professionals and couples alike. Offered part-furnished this apartment is available from the 8th of December.
